The Wolhurst Gazebo

"The friendliest place in the heart of Colorado"

In Greece, people believe it is bad luck to get married in a leap year. On the other hand, in Ireland, women can propose to a man.

According to a tale dating back to fifth century Ireland, St Brigid complained to St Patrick that women had to wait too long for men to propose marriage, and so he decided that in a leap year, women could take the initiative. However, if some sources are to be believed, Brigid was still a girl when Patrick died, which would make her a very precocious child!

A Scottish law enacted in 1288 – although unsubstantiated – by the unmarried and supposedly five-year-old Queen Margaret that allowed women the right to corner a man with a proposal. Men who refused would have to pay a fine in the form of a kiss, a silk dress or a pair of gloves. Which would you have preferred?

Superstitious Chinese believe that more accidents and mishaps occur during the leap month in the lunar calendar. They also think that children born in that month are harder to bring up. Nor are they keen to start a business or get married then.

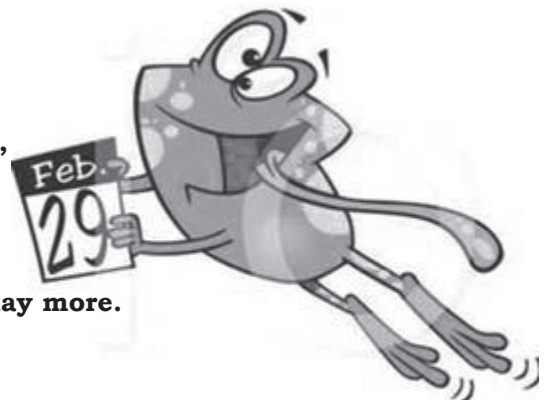

A custom in the United States that was born from the famous comic strip L'il Abner by American cartoonist Al Capp. In his fictional town of Dogpatch, there was a character called Sadie Hawkins, who couldn't attract a AAhusband because she was ugly. Her father then set up a day each year when women could literally chase after the bachelors in town in a race. The unlucky sod who is caught would have to marry the women who nabs him. While the event was held in November in the comic strip, it now seems to be associated with Feb 29.

Boy that was an awful cold spell. Hope it doesn't come back. Wish there had been more of you at the quarterly WHOA meeting on January 11th, it was really a good one. Got a lot of information on the upcoming HealthFair. Watch the upcoming Gazebo for more information.

Don't forget to turn in your WHOA membership dues of $5.00 to the office. Remember that money goes to help the community in many different ways.

Great things coming in the new year. Lots of activities.

As always if you have a suggestion or a complaint please feel free to put it in the locked WHOA suggestion box in the free room in the club house. All complaints and suggestions will be considered and answered, but remember in order to be considered they NEED TO BE SIGNED.

Until next month, Stay well, warm, safe and happy.

The Men's Club met January 6th and special reflection was given on the Manager's Brunch and acknowledging those serving in various capacities for that event. The Early Spring Breakfast will be held on Saturday, February 13th from 8-9:30 a.m. Residents will be receiving a flyer a few days prior reminding them of the "almost-too-good-to-be-true" $5 event. Your participation and support in this endeavour is much appreciated.

Some good brain-storming also took place about past and possible future involvement by the club for park enhancement - a great reminder that many hands make light work.

Excitement is already building over the June 20-23 annual fishing trip. If interested, pay your $100 to Red Janusch. Any man in the park is welcome to sign up.

Although dues collection for 2016 has already begun, men who were not members last year may sign up for half price ($2.50 instead of $5). You are invited and welcome to join!

REMINDER -

Some people make things happen!
Still others wonder what happened!

WHAT??? You call your creations "Dragons"? Or... "Dragon Queens"? <grin> Way to go ladies -- lots of fun and laughs!! What imaginations you all have. We'll put them to use in our February meeting! I trust you all have had good luck from your lucky coins.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

• Watch for information on a VALENTINE'S DAY DANCE on Friday, February 12th. Times TBD -- watch the communication board. To help you recover, The Men's Club is having a pancake breakfast Saturday morning :) (Actually, they scheduled their event first)

[By vote of the members present, a Valentine's Day Dance won out over a Mardi Gras celebration this year.]

• FEBRUARY MEETING WILL BE ON THE 4th - remember to bring your dimes for the "Dragon" races and a Chinese dish to celebrate the Chinese New Year!!

ALSO: we will be collecting dog food, cat food, plain clay cat litter, paper towels to be donated to an animal shelter at both the February and March meetings. As usual, we will conduct the raffle, and collect donations for The Fisher House.

• 9 HEALTH FAIR: volunteers are needed to help with food for the fair helpers and to help in other positions. The event will be held here at Wolhurst on April 23rd from 7am to noon. More discussion to follow.

Keep warm and safe this winter!!

KUDOS TO... Dave Nelson for taking over the CSFB food box program with John Colwell as his back-up. The community salutes and thanks you. Also, a great deal of thanks is due to Pat Goulet for keeping the program going the past few months and for her help on distribution Monday. She could not take over the program because she is needed at home in her most important role as caregiver.

Special thanks to Ed Weidner and Lee Ann Carmichael for their help loading and unloading the boxes.
